

Declaration

Participation in Online Examination – January 2022, Conducted by the Faculty of Engineering, University of Moratuwa

- I, _____
(Student's Full Name [Index Number]), hereby declare that the answer script submitted for _____ [Name of the Course and Course Code] by me during the course of this online assessment contain my own, original work. I also acknowledge that I am aware of the University's and the Faculty's Examination By-Laws, policies, rules, regulations and established academic conventions on honesty in academic work, I am also aware of the disciplinary guidelines and procedures applicable to breaches of such By-Laws, policies, rules, and regulations.
- I hereby declare that I have not distributed, shared, copied or used my answer script in any manner to gain an unfair academic advantage.
- I hereby declare that I have not sought assistance from any person to gain an unfair academic advantage.

I am aware of the fact that any violation of these clauses and common understandings will be regarded as fraud. Fraud or attempted fraud can result in the annulment of the examination or of an individual paper as decided by the respective authority, in accordance with the relevant University and Faculty By-Laws, rules, and regulations. By entering the date of submission along with my full name, National ID number and Index number below, I agree to be bound by all the provisions of this declaration as well as all the clauses and common understandings in the By-Laws, policies, rules and regulations relating to conducting of examinations in the University.

Date:

Course name:

Course code:

National ID number:

University Index Number:

Signature: